Discussion:

We live in a time when education is declining, populism is growing, and foreign propaganda is gaining influence. Educational and artistic institutions are not ivory towers and have to face reality. In this discussion, representatives of cultural organisations working in Germany will reflect on how our work has changed since 2022 - especially in relation to Ukraine - and what we can learn from the Ukrainian experience.

Panelists:

Katarzyna Sitko, Director of the Polish Institute in Berlin

Kim Brian Dudek, Director of the Pochen Biennale, Chemnitz

Jörg Heiser, Director of the Institute for Art in Context, UdK Berlin

Moderator:

Kateryna Rietz-Rakul, Head of the Ukrainian Institute in Germany

Get-together:

We look forward to a stimulating discussion, exciting insights and an open exchange.
